One of the largest tennis facilities in the South, the City Park Tennis Center has been named one of the top 25 municipal tennis facilities in the country by Tennis Magazine. 70,000 people play tennis yearly on the center's 24 hard courts and 10 clay courts (all lighted for night-time play). The facility offers two stadium courts, men's and women's locker rooms with showers, individual and group lessons taught by certified U.S.P.T.A. professionals, and a full service pro shop, including racquet stringing and rentals.

The City Park Tennis Center has been the host to many tournaments throughout the years. Some of the tournaments include: The USF&G Sugar Bowl International Tennis Classic, The New Orleans Oilmen's Tennis Tournament and the United States Tennis Association's National League Championships.

Round Robin Tournament: These fun social tournaments invite players of all levels to participate. No partners are needed. Five or Six rounds of four games of no-ad scoring games are played with total games won recorded at the conclusion of each round. All scores are totaled, and after five to six rounds, the top players compete in a one set final.

Always a fun event!
