At the Omni Tucson National Golf Resort & Spa, a 650 acre retreat in the Santa Catalina Mountains foothills, pleasure seekers revel in the championship golf and world-class spa, two sparkling pools, lighted tennis courts, three fine restaurants, and Four Diamonds worth of elegantly appointed rooms and suites.

The 167 luxury accommodations include rooms, suites, casitas, and haciendas; some with fireplaces, spacious living areas, dining alcoves, and fully equipped kitchens. Each room has a balcony or private patio with spectacular views of the mountains, fairways and pools; a décor rich in warm Southwestern hues, and the full complement of four-star amenities.

Desert stars dazzle diners on the terrace outside the Catalina Grille, the resort's smartly sophisticated steak house featuring prime aged beef and a changing array of contemporary American regional fare. A seasonal favorite, the Fiesta Room treats guests to breakfast and lunch in a casual Southwestern atmosphere, including patio dining overlooking the main pool. Legends, a classy sports pub, entertains with soups, sandwiches, microbrews, draft beer, billiards, shuffleboard and darts.

The opportunities on Omni's adult playground expand to include a bounty of recreation off-site, including jeep tours and horseback outing, hot-air balloon rides, shipping trips, even mountain excursions to pan for gold. At the Omni Tucson National Golf Resort & Spa, guests find a mother lode of pleasurable delights to make them return again and again.
